

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE	1
A. The Mandate	1
B. Structure of the Investigation	2
C. Purpose and Approach of the Report to the Special Division	5
I. SYNOPSIS OF EVENTS LEADING TO THE APPOINTMENT OF THE INDEPENDENT COUNSEL	7
II. REVIEW OF EVIDENCE	13
A. Origins of the Hudson Casino Proposal	13
1. Indian Gaming in Minnesota and Wisconsin Is a Lucrative Industry in Which Established Participants Have the Ability to Protect Their Financial Interests	14
2. The City of Hudson Is an Attractive Site for Gaming Because of Its Proximity to the Twin Cities	19
3. The Hudson Dog Track Owners First Attempted to Establish An Indian Casino by Seeking a Partnership with the St. Croix Tribe in 1992	22
4. Minnesota Indian Gaming Association Opposition to the Initial Hudson Proposal	23
5. The Hudson Dog Track Owners Form the Four Feathers Partnership with Three Wisconsin Indian Tribes in a Second Effort to Establish An Indian Casino at the Dog Track	26
B. The BIA Area Office Consideration of the Hudson Casino Proposal	29
1. Legal Framework and Procedures Governing Land to Trust Acquisitions for Off-Reservation Gaming	29
a. The Indian Reorganization Act of 1934	29
b. The Indian Gaming Regulatory Act of 1988	32
2. DOI Experience and Procedures for Reviewing Gaming Applications	39